Through the weary weeks that you suffered,
While our hearts were uplifted in prayer."

We will miss thee, dearest sister,
Since thy voice we'll hear no more;

John J. Fritz

In this gentleman we are pleased to call to the notice of our readers, one of the most prominent of the German American citizens of Ridge Township, Shelby County. He is thoroughly German in his sturdy industry, integrity, and thrift, and American in his determination to make this land of freedom a happy home for himself and his posterity. His Excellent farm bears the marks of thorough culture and good management, and the neatness and convenience of the buildings are a compliment to the owner which is more effective than words.

John Jacob Fritz, Sr., the father of our subject, was a native of Wurtemberg, Germany and came to this country and died in Ridge Township. His wife bore the name of Rosanna Clay, who was a native of Wurtemberg, and she also passed away in this township. Of their twelve children, our subject was the third in order of age, being born in Wurtemberg, Germany, March 19, 1833, and emigrating at the very early age of four weeks to a new world. They first settled in Lancaster County, Pa., and there made their home for three years, after which they went to Ohio, and lived in Morgan County, until a short time before their death, when they removed to Shelby County, Ill.

He of whom we write, lived at home until he was eighteen years old, and then removed to Fairfield County, Ohio, and worked upon a farm until he came to Shelby County, in the fall of 1860. He then rented the land which he now owns in Ridge Township, and brought on his wife whom he had been united in Fairfield County, Ohio, in February, 1858. Her maiden name was Barbara Sauder, and she was born in Wayne County, Ohio in September, 1841. After five years of renting, the young man purchased two hundred and twenty acres and he has now as fine an improved farm as is to be found in the township, upon which he erected a house and other excellent farm buildings. His farm has been increased from time to time by purchases until it now comprises six hundred and sixty acres.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz lost two son, William and Simon, in infancy. Those who survive are: John B., who married Emma Eversole; Lizzie, the wife of Clinton Eversole; James; Ella, who married Charles Beery; Edward, Samuel, and Charles B. The parents are members of the Evangelical Association in which Mr. Fritz has filled the offices of Steward, Trustee, and Class-Leader. His political views incline him to believe that in the principles of the Democratic party are to be found the best governmental ideas. He has officiated as Highway Commissioner and as School Director and in both capacities has served faithfully and efficiently.

Hi! I have a lot of information for you! First, let me introduce myself: I am the great granddaughter of John B. Fritz, the great-great granddaughter of the John J. Fritz you are looking for. My dad, James S. Fritz, was born in Decatur, Illinois. He had cousins in Shelby county, the Eversoles. His father was William Lawrence Fritz, son of John B. Fritz of Shelby county.

Next, some corrections to your information. One thing I'm absolutely sure of is that one of the children was named James W. not Jason W. I know this because my Dad grew up knowing James W. as his Uncle Jim and was named after him. James W. was married to Charlotte Stare Fritz, my dad's aunt Lottie. They lived in Decatur too.

I would guess the rest of my information is correct too, since I've seen it in more than one source.

The children were: John B., (married Emma Florence Eversole), Elizabeth A. (married Clinton Eversole), James W. (married Charlotte Stare), Ella S. (married Charles Beery), Edward J. (married Rhoda I. Yost), Samuel (married Rosetta May Evick), Charles B. (married Alma Yantis), and two who died in infancy, William and Simon.

Also, John Jacob Fritz's wife was named Barbara Sauder or sauders or souders. Try those.

John J. Fritz was born in Wurttemberg, Germany in 1833 and came to America as a baby only a few months old. His father was John Jacob Fritz, senior. His mother was Rosanna Clay.

They went first to Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, then to Fairfield County, Ohio. Then in 1874 a group migrated to Shelby County, Illinois including the Fritz family and the Eversole family.

This is most of what I know. I can give dates and some other info if you want. Let me know what you find out!

6. MARY² SOUDER (*JOHN*¹) was born 14 Jan 1845 in Fulton County, Ohio, and died 12 Apr 1926 in Nappanee, Indiana. She married CHRISTIAN H. STAHLY 27 Dec 1864 in Goshen, Indiana, son of HENRY STAHLY and MAGDELENA ERISMAN. He was born 09 Apr 1840 in Wayne County, Ohio, and died 24 Nov 1921 in Nappanee, Indiana.

Stahly. - Mary Souder was born in Fulton Co. Ohio, Jan. 14, 1845; died at her home in Nappanee, Ind., April 12, 1926; aged 81 y. 2 m. 28 d. She was married to Christian Stahly at Goshen, Ind., Dec. 27, 1864. To this union were born 11 children. Six of them (Elsina, Lovina, Katie, Barbara, Chauncy, and Melvin), with her beloved companion, have preceded her to the glory world. She leaves 3 daughters and 2 sons (Mrs. Ephraim Emmert, Mrs. Cliff Geyer, Mrs. George Peters, Clayton, and David), a sister (Mrs. Bert Makenson), 23 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends. She united with the Mennonite Church while young and has lived a consistent Christian life ever since. Their home was always enjoyed by all who ever resided there, and she and her husband worked hard to make home what it should be to their children, leaving an example that will be well worthy of following. They not only reared their own children but they took into their home for a number of years a nephew, Jesse Ringenberger, and gave him the benefits of this Christian home. Grandma Stahly has seen many sorrows through the loss of her children, but she thought the climax had been reached several years ago, when she was called to give up her companion. But the Lord brought her through this great sorrow and she lived for her children and her church the remaining years. She read her Bible much and when upon her bed of affliction, when no more able to read, those who cared for her read many chapters to her and always studied the Sunday school lesson with her, after which she would always say, "Thank you, that was so good." Funeral services were held at North Main street Mennonite Church by J. H. McGowen, assisted by Galen B. Royer. Text, II Cor. 5:1. Buried at Union Center.

DROWNED.

Chauncy Stahly Meets a Sad Fate While In Bathing Last Sunday

Chauncy Stahley, son of Christian Stahley, residing about a half mile east of town, was accidentally drowned while in bathing last Sunday afternoon at what is known as the mill dam at Stump Town.

The victim was a young man of about 22 years of age and the eldest of a family of eight - four boys and four girls. In company with several companions he went to the mill pond on last Sunday afternoon for the purpose of bathing. They all had been in the water for some time at a place where the depth was from three to seven feet. Young Stahley, not being able to swim much, proceeded with caution at first while in the water with his companions, even asking, it is said, where the deep places were in order to avoid them. But later when most of them had retired to the bank he unfortunately got into a place where it was over his head and dove. Unnoticed particularly by those on the bank he came to the surface for the second time before he called for help. As he was sinking for the third time two or three of his companions started into the water after him. But being not much if any better swimmers than the subject of this sketch, they proceeded with caution and the boy came to the surface for the fourth time just out of reach of both of those who were attempting the rescue, and it was almost certain death for one of them to have taken hold of him, and so the only opportunity to save the boys life quickly past as he sank for the last time.

A boat was then procured and search made for the body, by dragging the paddles, which was soon found and lifted up by the same means and taken ashore, where an attempt at resuscitating the drowned boy was made by laying him across a log. Though they succeeded in getting about all the water away, yet, the time that had elapsed was so long - being some 20 minutes or half an hour - that the efforts were without reward. The body was at once conveyed to the home where but a few hours previous, the victim of the sad accident was a member of a happy household.

It was thought that the water where the young man was drowned contained several springs and the sudden change of the temperature rendered him powerless to help himself, which was probably the case.

The family being of a nervous temperament anyway, the shock was indescribable, and the family completely prostrated with grief. They have the sympathy of the entire community in their time of sorrow.

The funeral occurred on Monday afternoon from the Dunkard church and was largely attended.

Clayton Stahly Dies Suddenly

Word was received Sunday noon that Mr. Clayton Stahly, long time resident of Nappanee, had died very suddenly. Although he had been ill for about two weeks, he was reported to have improved. He was born on the Stahly farm, now owned by Kenneth Stump, January 3, 1884. He lived on East Market Street his entire life until 1944, when he sold the farm he had owned to Mr Edgar Stahly; this farm is now the site of the present Bowling Lanes.

The Stahlys have been living in Glendora, California, in the winters and at their cottage on Syracuse Lake in the summer, for the past 20 years. They had just returned to their home in California on October 15.

For years Mr. Stahly was engaged in the raising of thoroughbred Holstein cattle, and for years was a rural mail carrier out of the local office.

While the Stahlys had not lived in the limits of Nappanee for the past 20 years, they have a host of friends in this vicinity. On October 8th, they celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. He was married to Cora Miller on Oct 8, 1904. He is survived by Mrs. Stahly, two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Geyer of Nappanee, and Mrs. George Peters of Dewart Lake, plus a host of nieces and nephews in this area.

Charles Lehman, a nephew, left by plane Monday morning for Glendora to accompany Mrs. Stahly back to Nappanee. The funeral will be Thursday (today) at 2 P.M. in the Church of the Brethren, of which he has been a member most of his life. Rev. Waggoner of the Syracuse Church of the Brethren, and Rev. Wm. Kidwell, pastor of the local church will officiate. Interment will be in the Union Center Cemetery under the direction of Wright Funeral Home.

A Sad Death.

Barbara Stahly, nineteen years old and a daughter of Christian Stahly, living east of Nappanee, Ind., was frightfully burned by a gasoline explosion on the 14th of September, at about 9:30, and died the same evening at about 5 o'clock. She was at the home of her brother, David Stahly, half a mile east of town, and alone in the house at the time of the accident. Having some cleaning to do she filled a pail about half full of gasoline and poured boiling water on it; this created gas in the room which was ignited by the stove and it exploded. Her clothing caught fire and she ran out in the yard, where her screams for help attracted the attention of her sister-in-law, who at the time was at a close-by neighbor's house. Other members of the family also came to her assistance, but by the time they arrived she was so badly burned that she died as stated above. She was buried on Sunday, the 16th inst. Her funeral was largely attended. She leaves parents, four sisters and two brothers. This was a sad death indeed and every one handling gasoline should be warned to guard against taking it near the fire or pouring hot water on it. It is dangerous.

LADY BURNED TO DEATH

Miss Barbara Stahly Victim of a Frightful Tragedy at The Farm Home of Her Brother

Barbara Stahly, 19 years old and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Stahly, living east of town was frightfully burned by a gasoline explosion last Friday morning at about 9:30, and died from her injuries at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

She was at the home of her brother David Stahly who lives on the Stahly farm one-half mile east of Nappanee, and alone in the house at the time the accident occurred. Having some cleaning to do she had filled a pail about half full of gasoline and poured boiling water on it which created a gas in the room which was ignited and exploded. Her clothing caught fire and she ran out in the yard where her screams for help attracted the attention of her sister-in-law, Mrs. David Stahly, who was at the time across the road at the home of Geo. Peters. Several other members of the family were about the barn and in the fields and ran to help her. When they arrived her clothing was nearly burned off and her flesh from her head to her waist was burned so badly that she was beyond recognition.

The funeral was held at the Dunkard church at 1:30 Sunday afternoon, and the interment was made by N. A. Lehman in the Union Center cemetery.

She is survived by her parents, four sisters and two brothers, viz: Mrs. George Peters, Mrs. Ephraim Emmert, Mrs. Curtis Geyer, Mrs. Clifford Geyer, David, and Clayton Stahly.

This is the second tragedy that has been recorded in this family, as some 19 years ago Chauncey, was drowned in the pond at Geyer dam.

18. MARY ANN³ MUSSER (SARAH² SOUDER, JOHN¹) was born 25 Aug 1863 in Wayne County, Ohio, and died 10 Sep 1943 in Wayne County, Ohio. She married DANIEL THEODORE STEINER 12 Nov 1881 in Wayne County, Ohio, son of PETER STEINER and ESTHER LOCKER. He was born 05 Nov 1858 in Medina County, Ohio, and died 09 Nov 1941 in Marshallville, Ohio.

Notes for MARY ANN MUSSER:

Gospel Herald - Vol. XXXVI, No. 27 - September 30, 1943 pages 559-560

Steiner.- Mary Ann, daughter of Christian and Sarah Musser, was born in Chippewa Twp., Aug. 25, 1863; departed this life at the place of her birth, Sept. 10, 1943; aged 80 y. 15 d. On Nov. 12, 1881 she was united in marriage to Daniel T. Steiner. To this union were born 2 sons and 5 daughters. Her husband preceded her in death, Nov. 9, 1941. In the spring of 1882 she with her husband united with the Crown Hill Mennonite Church where she remained a faithful member during the remainder of her life. She was much interested in the welfare of the Church, especially in the days when its membership was dwindling. It was her prayer that the seats of the church would be filled, which prayer God has wonderfully answered. For many years she taught the women's Sunday-school class and her place in services was seldom vacant. She had a quiet disposition but her smile, even in her declining years, will be remembered by all who came in contact with her. She was a lover of home and of nature and her thoughts were for others. The many trees on the old homestead will continue bearing fruit for others long after the dear hands that planted them are cold in death. She is survived by a son, (Melvin A. Steiner, Pittsburgh, Pa.), 4 daughters (Mrs. Pearl Stull, Wadsworth, O.; Mrs. Minnie Baumgartner, Marshallville; Mrs. Effie Ebersole, Marshallville; Mrs. Florence Kanagy, Rittman), 18 grandchildren, 3 foster grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, 2 brothers (Dan Musser and Jacob Musser, both of Orrville, O), and a sister (Mrs. Simon Kurtz, Smithville, O.). She was preceded in death by her husband, an infant son, a daughter Clara, 4 grandchildren, and a great-grandchild, her parents, 2 sisters, and 4 brothers. Bro. Noah Hilty had charge of the service at the house. Bro. Stanford Mumaw and Bro. E. F. Hartzler had charge at the Crown Hill Mennonite Church where burial was made. Text, Titus 2:11-13.

Rest, tired feet, now forever;
Dear wrinkled hands are so still.
Blasts of the earth shall no longer,
Throw over our loved one a chill.
Angel throngs will guide her;
Jesus will still bless and keep.
Not for the world would we wake her;
Mother has fallen asleep.

Notes for DANIEL THEODORE STEINER:

GOSPEL HERALD - Vol. XXXIV, No. 36 - December 4, 1941 - pg 759

Steiner.-Daniel Theodore, oldest son of Peter S. and Esther Locker Steiner, was born in Gilford Twp., Medina Co., Ohio, Nov. 5, 1858; peacefully passed away at his home near Marshallville, O., on Sunday, Nov. 9, 1941; aged 83 y. 4 d. Father Steiner was in his usual good health and attended the Ohio Sunday School Conference at the Kidron Mennonite Church on Wednesday, Aug. 13, and the following Friday he went to Ingram, Pa., to visit his son Melvin, and after an enjoyable visit of two weeks he was taken seriously ill with a hear attack but recovered sufficiently to be removed to his home two weeks later. However, because of his advanced age, he continued growing weaker until the end came. On Nov. 12, 1881, he was united in marriage to Mary Ann Musser and the following spring they moved to his companion's old homestead, at which farm he lived the remainder of his earthly pilgrimage. To this union 7 children were born: an infant son, who preceded him in death Dec. 3, 1882; a son, Melvin, of Ingram, Pa.; and the following daughters: Pearl Stull of Seville, O.; Clara Yoder, who passed away Nov. 9, 1927; Minnie Baumgartner, who resided at home and cared for her father during his illness; Effie Ebersole, Marshallville, O.; and Florence Kanagy, Rittman, O. There was also an orphan boy (Jay Spencer), and a granddaughter (Pearl Viola Rue), who were cared for a number of years in his home. Also his father, Peter S. Steiner, spent several years with him, and was in his home at the time of his death, Jan. 13, 1927. In his boyhood days he accepted Christ as his personal Saviour and united with the Baptist Church; and in the spring of 1882 he transferred his membership to the Crown Hill Mennonite Church where he remained faithful until death. He was much interested in the building of the Crown Hill Church in 1883 and could relate many interesting experiences of the beginning of Sunday school at Crown Hill, he being one of the first superintendents at that time. He served as church treasurer for many years, and continued a live interest in the church of his choice until death. He leaves to mourn his departure his companion, 1 son, 4 daughters, 18 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren, 1 sister (Mrs. Ella Derhammer, Seville, O.), 3 brothers (W. J. Steiner and D. H. Steiner, both of Wadsworth, O., and T. E. Steiner of Wooster, O.), and many other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, an infant son, his daughter Clara, 1 brother, Wesley, 4 grandchildren, and 2 great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held on Nov. 12, it being his sixtieth wedding anniversary. Services were held in the home by Bro. N. E. Hilty and at the Crown Hill Mennonite Church by Bros. I. J. Buchwalter and E. F. Hartzler. Text, Heb. 9: 27. He was laid to rest beside his daughter Clara who was laid away on Father's forty-sixth wedding anniversary.

"Finished are all earth's labors,
Tired and ready to sleep;
Ready to bid his friends good-by,
Wondering why they weep.
Passing out of earth's shadows
Into infinite day,
Why do we call it dying,
This beautiful going away?"

Notes for JOHN W. MUSSER:

Musser. - John W. Musser was born in Chippewa tp., Wayne Co., Ohio, Aug. 15, 1865. On the morning of Nov. 26, 1915, he peacefully fell asleep in Jesus; aged 50 y. 3 m. 11 d. In early life he confessed Christ as his Savior and was born into the Kingdom of God. He united with the Amish Mennonite Church and served his Master faithfully until God called him to his reward, always being interested in the Church and in the cause of His Master. His last and only sickness was a complication of diseases. He bore his affliction and suffering patiently, and realizing his time near at hand expressed a desire and readiness to depart. He was married to Elizabeth Felix, Nov. 18, 1886. This union God blessed with 3 sons and 1 daughter; Theodore, Ernest, Orié and Gladys; also 2 grandchildren. His dear loving wife, 4 children, 2 grandchildren, also his aged mother, 3 brothers, 3 sisters and a host of relatives and friends remain to mourn his departure. But may our loss be his eternal gain. Gospel Herald - Volume XXV, Number 38 - December 22, 1932 -- pages 814, 815, 816

Musser.--Elizabeth, daughter of Adam and Anna Felix, was born at Burton City, Ohio, Feb. 7, 1868; died Dec. 8, 1932 at Orrville, O.; aged 64 y. 10 m. 1 d. On Nov. 18, 1886, she was united in marriage with John W. Musser. To them were born 3 sons and 1 daughter (Theodore H., Ernest R., Orié W., and Gladys M. (Mrs. Howard Kauffman), all of Orrville. She is survived by all her children, 6 grandchildren, 3 brothers (Frank of Marshallville, O., Peter of Orrville, O., William of Smithville, O.), and 3 sisters (Mrs. John B. Kurtz of Smithville, Mrs. Solomon Goon of Perrysville, O., and Mrs. Nicholas Stempfli of Columbiana, O.). Her husband died Nov. 26, 1915, leaving her in widowhood over 17 years. She confessed her faith in Christ as her Savior in her youth and was received into the Oak Grove Mennonite Church, later becoming a charter member of the Orrville Mennonite Mission Church, in which fellowship she worshiped until death. The services of the house of God were her delight, and the keeping of the Christian ordinances brought her much joy. In her last illness, which deprived her of meeting in public worship for about seven months, she appreciated very much the ministries of friends in song, reading of Scripture, and in prayer. She suffered much distress in her affliction, but bore it with Christian patience. Again and again she expressed her full resignation to the Lord's will, but had a strong desire to depart and be at rest with the Lord. She was a helpful neighbor, a loving and self-sacrificing mother, and a quiet and devoted Christian. Her life was a life of service for others and in turn her days of lingering affliction were blessed by the loving service of others who provided every possible comfort for her. Funeral services were conducted at the home and at the Oak Grove Church on Dec. 11, 1932, by I. W. Royer, assisted by A. L. Scherry, J. S. Gerig, and C. Z. Yoder. The 23rd Psalm was used by request of Sister Musser for the scriptural meditations.

His last and only sickness, pneumonia, continued for only a few days, when he was relieved by death. He bore his sickness with much patience and was resigned to the will of God. In his early life he accepted Christ as his personal Savior, and united with the Amish Mennonite Church. He was a faithful member and served the church for many years in active Christian work, such as Sunday school superintendent and teacher, etc. By his departure the family loses a kind and loving husband and father, the church an active and talented worker, the community a kind and helpful neighbor. But our loss will be his eternal gain, therefore we all submit to the will of God and say, "Thy will be done." Services at the Oak Grove Church. Interment in the cemetery near by

In her life she felt the call for more definite service for the Lord, and after some struggle, she yielded to the call, and gave about a year and a half of her life in mission work at Altoona, Pa. Because of her health failing she was obliged to give up the work, which she so much loved. Sister Clara was not only a missionary away from home, but her life of faithful loving service will be remembered by many in her church and community. She leaves her husband, father and mother, 1 brother (Melvin), 4 sisters (Pearl Stull, Minnie Baumgartner, Effie Ebersole, and Florence), and a large number of relatives and friends. 1 brother preceded her in death. It was Jesus at the door;
Thou didst open, and He whispered,
Come now to the other shore."
