

Quid amat Iulia?

Worth a double quiz grade

Write 20 simple sentences in Latin that have a subject (in the nominative) a verb (singular or plural depending on the subject) and direct object (in the accusative). Translate your sentences as well.

Do not use est / sunt because they do not have direct objects.

Keep them as simple as possible. All answers will be credit/no credit

Exempli grātiā (e.g.):

Iūlia amat Margaritam (Iulia loves Margarita).

Servī portant saccōs (The slaves carry bags).

Italia habet oppida (Italy has towns).
