
mihi nomen est. Lingua Latīna - Capitulum V Probatio

Answer in complete sentences. If you answer a question negatively, provide a true statement (Estne Quintus magnus vir? Minime, Quintus parvus puer est)

Quī in vīllā Iūliī habitant?

Habentne Iūlius et Aemilia multās filiās?

Quid est semper* in impluviō? (* = always)

Dormitne Dāvus sōlus in cubiculō magnō?

Estne Syra fēmina foeda? Cūr?

Nūm vīlla Iūliī paucās fenestrās habet?

Carpitne Iūlia lilīa in hortō?

Ubi est Iūlius?

All of these marginalia express the same concept. What is it?

iī (= eī) : servi

ea : cubicula

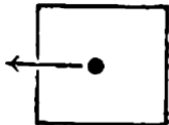

cae : ancillae

What is the difference between hortus and hortō in these contexts?

hortus

Iūlia in hortō est

Iūlia ex hortō venit