

Translate the following into Latin

Nominative

This boy is big.

This girl is big.

This town is big.

Genitive

This big boy's apple is small.

This big girl's apple is small.

This big town's apple is small.

Dative

Marcus gives this big boy an apple.

Marcus gives this big girl an apple.

Marcus give this big town an apple.

Accusative

Iulia sees this big boy.

Iulia sees this big girl.

Iulia sees this big town.

Ablative

Quintus departs from this big boy.

Quintus departs from this big girl.

Quintus departs from this big town.

Translate the following into Latin

Nominative

These boys are big.

These girls are big.

These towns are big.

Genitive

These big boys' apple is small.

These big girls' apple is small.

These big town's apple is small.

Dative

Marcus gives these big boys an apple.

Marcus gives these big girls an apple.

Marcus give these big towns an apple.

Accusative

Iulia sees these big boys.

Iulia sees these big girls.

Iulia sees these big towns.

Ablative

Quintus departs from these big boys.

Quintus departs from these big girls.

Quintus departs from these big towns.
