

Physics 127

Reflection Paper on Science and the Game of Science

Write a paper of at least one page length (double spaced, 12 point font, 1" margins [not including name heading, keep BS to a minimum]) relating what we have learned about science to the two reverse game play activities. Be certain to discuss the necessity of having direct evidence to support the determination of an initial condition. Attach to this essay a neat and coherent set of rules for each game.