

Perfect Matching Covers of Cubic Graphs

Jiaao Li, West Virginia University

A perfect matching of G is an independent edge set which is incident with every vertex exactly once. Berge and Fulkerson conjectured every bridgeless cubic graph G has six perfect matchings such that each edge of G is covered by exactly two of them. In this talk, we will discuss some results about the perfect matching cover of cubic graphs as well as the intersection of perfect matchings.